WEEK #	DATE	CRAFT
1	June 25	ARTISTIC STORY STARTERS - Display of National Endowment for the Humanities 40 “Picturing America” high-quality color art reproductions; participants will write about what they see in the art or about themselves in relation to the art.
2	July 2	ALTERED BOOKS - Recover, paint, or design the covers of old disposable books.
3	July 9	GOCKS - Create your own Goth sock puppets, in preparation for a Goth Sock Puppet Show to younger children in September.
4	July 16	SELF-PORTRAIT ART - Using a wide variety of materials, make your own self-portrait.
5	July 23	PAINTING RE-CREATION PUZZLE DRAWING - A famous work of Lake Champlain art will be enlarged & cut into puzzle pieces. Participants will each get a piece of the puzzle to reproduce artistically & they will be pieced back together & hung next to the original in the Library.
6	July 30	MAGNETIC POETRY - Using words from old magazines & magnetic backing, creating magnetic poetry. This is not store-bought magnetic poetry.
7	August 6	INSPIRATIONAL PHRASE/QUOTES NECKLACES, BRACELETS, & PINS - Using word beads & regular beads, find inspirational phrases or quotes in library books & making them into jewelry.
8	August 13	 TEMPORARY HENNA TATTOOS and DUCT TAPE CRAFTS - A volunteer tattooist will do a small tattoo for each participants. Those waiting for their tattoo can do a duct-tape craft (many sizes possible).
9	August 20	 PHOTO SHOOT FOR “READ” POSTERS - Group photos will be taken (by library staff) with your favorite book. Photos will be enlarged and hung in the Library, like the Amer. Library Assn’s celebrity “READ” posters. Participants will receive a smaller copy for their own rooms.
10	August 27	BACK-TO-SCHOOL WEEK - Design your own marble magnets & pencil holders from old CD cases.
